

Biography : Farshid Behjat Mohammadi

Farshid Behjat Mohammadi is now serving as the general manager of interactive media services office in the technical department of IRIB, which includes developing and running services in fields such as OTT/IPTV, social media services and AR/VR. He holds a BS in telecommunication engineering and a MS in executive MBA. He has been involved in the period of 1999-2014 in technical research center of IRIB in the telecommunication projects as the technical staff and head of the project and served as a researcher from 2014-2017 in the interactive media services research office. He has been nominated as a selected researcher and research manager in IRIB in these years.